Winton Open Day - Saturday 19 Nov 2022, 10am-4pm

Celebrate the onset of Christmas at the annual open day. This family friendly community event is a great opportunity to meet, mingle and enjoy a range of activities, entertainment, stalls, displays, fun and food and retail therapy!

For the kids

Children will have a ball! At the Kids Hub (Anglican Church Hall) they'll find face-painting, balloons, photos with Santa (10am-2pm) and strawberries and ice-cream, The Toy Library. Then there's the Teddy Bears Picnic (Noon-1pm at Weka), before roaming further afield and finding the bouncy castles (ANZAC Oval), water balls, mini jeeps and catching up with Sparks the Clown. At AWS Legal see the colouring competition display. Kids get your entries in by 11 November. Info has been sent to the schools, and downloadable at winton.co.nz/event

There was a profusion of pink as 90 ladies gathered for lunch, raffles, auctions, tea, coffee, wine and pink ribbon cupcakes.

Guest speaker Jocelyn O'Donnell shared her journey from being in London, away from her father's HWR business, to making the decision to return to Invercargill and get fully involved.

She talked about the diversity within business and family businesses changing from each generation, and each sibling, creating multiple aspects.

Maria Scammell, of the Winton Business Association and organiser of the fundraiser for this the 11th year, acknowledged "the great support we get from the local and surrounding districts especially our generous sponsors"

Christmas Fete Returns

Spring is finally upon us and that means that fete time is once again drawing near! Supporting, both local and New Zealand made businesses from further afield, the fete is a great gathering of artisans who showcase their gorgeous products once a year at The Hideaway 201.

Now in its 12th year at The Hideaway, the fete has gained popularity as a fantastic one stop shop for everything from quality clothing, garden sculpture, jewellery and homewares to gourmet food products and Christmas decorations. It's a popular pre-Christmas destination as a great place to start shopping and to catch up with friends in a relaxed garden setting.

There are over 170 quality stalls to shop from with new stallholders being added in each year to keep it fresh and exciting for shoppers as well as the firm favourites who love being part of the fete experience.

Fantastic food options cater for everyone:

The Hideaway 201 restaurant, a wide range of food stalls, coffee, elderberry cordials, Pimms, cocktails, gin, smoothies, real fruit ice cream... and so much more!

Come along for a fabulous day out.

Saturday 26th November 2022 – 10am-4pm, $15 cash only gate entry or pre-purchase gourmet lunch box, bubbles and fete entry tickets for $40 by emailing jane@southernfete.co.nz
