Winton Athletics Club Success

The 40th Anniversary Colgate Games were held in Timaru 12th - 14th January 2018. Winton Athletics Club had a team of 19 athletes make the trip up and compete.

The Grade 7-9 athletes compete in Divisions and are given Pennants for placings in those Divisions. Winton came away with 14 Pennants for the club members in that age bracket. Grade 10 and above compete for medals so have heats, semis and finals for their events. Winton had 5 medallists at the games, between them they got 6 medals. Over the weekend the Athletes at the games got a total of 25 Personal Bests.

Pennant winners

Reuben Mills – Silver in 60,100,200

Maisy Symon – Gold in Long Jump, Silver in 100

Nicholas Hammond – Gold in Long Jump, Bronze in Shot and Long Jump

Ferguson Hammond – Gold in Long Jump, Silver in 60, 100, 200

Relay team of Reuben Mills, Maisy Symon, Ferguson Hammond and Kaleb Morris – Bronze

Medal Winners

Devan Clark (13) – He had a great first time ever at the games coming away with a Gold in the 200m and a Silver in the 100m

Carlie Scherp (10) – Carlie's first time in the medals at the Colgates and she came away with a Gold in the Discus. Carlie's Winning throw broke a Southland Record that was set in 1985.
